Tribute from Maureen Mooney

Relation: Friend; work colleague

It was always a pleasure to work with Ann. Knowing she was on, working at the front desk, provided a reassurance that any question that I had would be answered quickly and compassionately. Ann's humor was infectious and always appreciated! You are missed!

Tribute from Melanie Oldham

Relation: Best Childhood Friend / Sister

To Ann's Family:

I am so sad to hear of Ann's passing. Ann and I were kindred spirits as small children. Ann lived at the bottom of Cowan street, and I lived on the 6th and Cowan. We were best friends all through elementary school. We shared parents and I am hoping to get to the funeral, and tell you a few stories if time is permitted. I was always hoping Ann would come back to Kamloops, and we could re-unite. We did get together when Harvey passed away. It was like old times. I hope your family stays strong, and keep Ann in your heart 24/7. I look forward to meeting you. I will always have our childhood memories close to me. See you Saturday.
Love from Melanie Oldham

Ann, my good friend, we were supposed to grow old together. This was too soon, too sudden and too sad.

Tribute from Laurel Coghlin-Newman

Relation: Work colleague

Losing Ann has left such a big hole in our work family. She would greet us at the beginning of the shift with her big smile and an eye roll. No matter what happened, we had her calm efficiency to fall back on. So grounded, so considerate, so caring , such a keen sense of humour. A lovely person through and through. Ian, Tyson and Lauren, thank you for sharing her with us. We are better for knowing her.
