Dear Gerry and Wendy, please except our sincere condolences on the tragic loss of your dear son, Curtis. We fondly recall what adventuresome boy he was. A favorite memory of him, was his great efforts to dig a hole all the way to China! Holly, Sean and Ian were recruited to help with the major excavation in the backyard of your home on 161st. There were also fun times Trick or Treating and fishing at the Colbrook Trout Farm. May Curtis's spirit soar.
