

REMEMBERING
Deborah Joann Clark
July 4, 1953 - November 10, 2017

It is with great sadness the family of Deborah Joann Clark nee Somerville found her peace in Heaven on Friday 11:30pm November 10, 2017 at 64 years.

Deborah Joann was born July 4, 1953 at Grace Hospital Vancouver B.C. daughter of Priscilla and Donald Somerville. Deb grew up in Coquitlam with her siblings, Jody, Donald, and Byron.

Deborah Joann married David Ray Clark on June 12, 1982. Deb's first meeting of Dave was at the age of 14 years. They spent some years apart to come together by chance, realizing their love was undeniable.

Deb and Dave welcomed three beautiful daughters, Raychel Alysha, Melissa Ann, and Samantha Alyson. Deb embodied the role of the nurturing Mother and loving wife. Deb chose to stay home to raise her family, being the devoted wife and Mother she will always be remembered for. This, as well as her sense of humour, carried Deb through all life's ups and downs.

With great joy Deborah Joann became Nana to her wonderful Grandbabies, Clayre Elizabeth, Lily Ann, Declan Ray, and Gordon Clark. Deb epitomized Nanahood with her kind nature.

She leaves her loving memories to be cherished by all who knew her. Services will be private for imitate family. If you wish to send condolences please email for more information, Bonshor@gmail.com.

