

REMEMBERING
Jason Daniel Mortimer

August 26, 1982 - December 20, 2024

It is with immense sadness and extreme heartbreak that we announce the sudden passing of Jason Daniel Mortimer, which occurred at his home in Richmond BC on December 20, 2024, due to Cardiac Arrest resulting from Severe Cardiovascular Disease.

Jason was born on August 26, 1982 in Surrey BC to parents Joseph Mortimer Jr. and Brenda Gower Churchill.

Jason spent most of his childhood in Saint John NB and young adulthood in both NB and BC, he was active in playing sports, skateboarding, gaming, and had a strong interest in astronomy and physics.

Jason worked as a Carpenter until an injury forced him to switch his career, he was currently enrolled in Brighton College Burnaby BC Campus studying AutoCAD Drafting and Design Specialist. He was an avid hockey fan with Canucks as his #1 team with the Leafs not far behind.

Besides his parents Jason is survived by his brothers Jeffery (Melissa) Mortimer and Jonathan (Amber) Mortimer, nephew Jayden Mortimer, nieces Keeva and Maeve Mortimer as well as several uncles, aunts and cousins.

Jason was predeceased by his grandparents Joseph and Joan Mortimer, Fulton and Leona Gower, Stepfather Kenneth Churchill, as well as his cousins Curtis Gower and Amy Clain.

A private Burial and Celebration of Life will be held in Saint John NB at a later date.
