Tribute from Roger and Jasmine Heginbotham

We were so sorry to hear of the passing of Jennifer. Although we were not able to meet with Jennifer we shared many memories with Linda and Mary when they were staying with Bernard my father here on the Isle of Man. We offer our sincere condolences to all the family at this very sad time. Roger

Tribute from Rani Gill

I grew up beside the Feldhaus family. Jenny was an almost daily part of my life as a child. I remember a house always full of kids, noise and conversation. Jenny claimed I was half-Irish because I was born on St. Patrick's day -- and lo and behold, many years later I married a half-Irish lad who grew up in Chicago. She was also pivotal in my decision to attend Simon Fraser. At her and Bert's insistence I applied (rather late) and was granted a scholarship on the spot! Her attempt to interest me in Brownie's didn't quite turn out so well -- I managed only one badge in skipping backwards (which I can still do to this day; Linda did much better.) There are so many memories. My heartfelt condolences to Bert, David, Linda, Robert, Kim, Virginia and Mary (and spouses and grandkids) on behalf of the Gill family. We are still neighbors even though many miles separate me from the Farm these days. I will see you all on Friday. --- Renne (yes, signed the old way :)
