Tribute from Brenda Briskham

To my soulmate... words cannot describe how much I miss you, I never knew the meaning of a broken heart until now... You will forever be in my heart and my every thought. We both finally found our soulmate and love of our life and then God took you away too early. As I whispered in your ear when you took your last breath... wait for me in heaven and we will finally be together for all eternity... I love you Lino Cavallari with every breath I take, and when I think of you I will smile and my heart will smile, I will be strong for you as you asked but it doesn't make it easier. Know I love you in this life and the after life no-one can take our love away... Rest in peace my love for you are with me and I with you forever joined in love, spirit and our hearts are one. You will Always be my One True Love Lino keep this in your heart, we are always together as one... I love you Lino

Tribute from Lynne Hawkins

Grief is just a word until you experience it. Brenda and our family and the Cavallari family are grieving over the unexpected loss of Lino. He was the kindest, loving, and most considerate gentle man we could ever meet.. He is one who we will never forget . My daughter finally found true happiness with him and they had intended to get married in June. I believe God had already united them . They had a good calm loving life and it would have continued .....however God needed an angel to walk with him , and Lino went to that peaceful place We miss you but. walk in peace, my Son.

To my amazing stepfather - Lino Cavallari,

Words cannot express the sorrow that I feel with your passing. Our time was cut too short, we had much more life to live and love to give. When I think of you I will remember your charming personality, your love for coffee and cookies, and your love for your family. You were a hardworking and generous man who took two young children into your life and raised them as your own. I will be forever grateful for the memories we made together and the love you had for me. I still have the little mermaid wallet and mirror you gave me so long ago along with the many other memories that we share together. When I think about my childhood you are the first person that I picture in my head - you were the light to the darkness around us. You would hold me in your arms with all the love you had and make me feel like the luckiest little girl in the world. You adored me and I adored you and always will. You will always be in my heart and I will think about you everyday and remember what a great man I had the chance of knowing. I know your up in heaven looking over all those that loved you with your Cheyenne

My condolences to everyone that was in Lino's life. He was like a big brother to me when we were young, and my guardian angel. He protected me when needed and always looked out for me. He was a very special person, hard working, dedicated, companionate and a good friend. I did not see him a lot in past few years but he was always in my thoughts, he will be missed greatly. My thought go out to his family, I am truly sorry to hear of his passing!!

My Dear Brother--My heart is broken. If you only knew how much I miss you already. My whole life you were everything to me, not only my brother, but also a best friend. I have so many wonderful memories of you that I will cherish close to my heart forever. I can still hear your voice when you would reminisce about how I would hold only your baby finger with my whole hand, as you took me for a walk. When we lived together, how you would ,make me laugh when you would ask "Murrey got any rackies?, for racamele in Italian. We both had a compassion for gardening, every year I will plant a flower planter for you. I am forever grateful that I had you in my life, as my brother. You were always so loving, gentle and kind. Thank you for all your loving support you have given me. God took you from us all too soon, but I believe he must have better plans for you, as he only takes the best. I know you will be watching over all of us, and that one day you will be waiting for each of us. Rest in Peace my Dear Brother, until we meet again.
I love you Lino, Forever.....Your lil sis...xox
