

REMEMBERING
Livingstone Mjama

August 2, 1961 - November 11, 2020

Livingstone was beloved husband to Nancy Mjama, and father to Joan, William (wife Sally and baby Zoe Joy), and Florence. He was also uncle to Grace Muriuki and the Mwandacha family. Livingstone was a pastor in Kenya for over 20 years at the Christian Revival Church in Nakuru. In 2017, Livingstone and their 3 children moved to Canada and joined wife Nancy in White Rock, Surrey, where he had been working for the City of Surrey these past few years. Livingstone was diagnosed with a brain tumour earlier this year, and despite our prayers to the contrary, was called to his heavenly home recently. He passed away on November 11th at the Peace Arch Hospital Foundation Lodge at the age of 59. Livingstone died as he lived - with faith, hope, and love in his heart, and words of praise on his lips. We surrender him into the care of our Heavenly Father, whom he loved so much, knowing that Livingstone is now beholding the face of Jesus with joy unspeakable.
