

REMEMBERING
Louise Sawula

August 2, 1941 - April 25, 2026

Louise Sawula (nee Krenn) passed away peacefully on April 25, 2026, in Surrey, BC.

She was predeceased by her father, Joseph Krenn, and mother, Anne Krenn (Hargarten), husband, Peter Sawula and brother-in-law, Terry Evans.

She will be sadly missed by sisters Therese Chicoine(Denis), Mary Rose Evans, Marg Hardy(Noel) and Kathy (Victor Lipp), brothers Lambert (Paulette Webber), Richard (Brenda) and many loving nieces and nephews, as well as many close, lifelong friends.

Lou was born in Cudworth, Saskatchewan, on August 2nd, 1941, residing in Saskatoon until 2023, then moving to Surrey, BC, to be closer to family.

Lou's career was spent as a Nursing Assistant in Saskatoon, dedicated to the babies in the Neonatal unit.

She was strong-willed and quick-witted, always ready with a snappy comeback, emphasizing her sense of humour.

She and Pete enjoyed many fishing trips together with their dogs and had a ritual at Tim Hortons for early-morning coffee gatherings with friends.

She had a strong devotion to her family and friends and will always be fondly remembered by all.
