Tribute from Madeleine (Groos) Humer

What a wonderful and inspiring teacher we had in "Mr Webster"! He started me on my life long love of harmony, counterpoint, ear-training and musical form...sometimes thought of as dry subject matter for a busy music student, but not under Mr. Webster! Being able to pass on this passion to many singers through the Victoria Children's Choir is a testament to his excellent teaching and love of young musicians who want to learn. I had such fun learning from him!

Tribute from Karen McIvor

I have such happy memories of Junior Choir at Fairfield United. Mr. Webster had high expectations of us and encouraged us to achieve those standards. He also knew how to make us laugh. It was a happy time. My sympathy to his family.

Tribute from Jenny Coy

I am one of many whose musical life was enriched by Rodney Webster, first as a chorister in the Victoria Choral Society and then as a music teacher. He introduced many teachers to his innovative 'Music Language' programme and I used the 'Adventuring with Music' series in my home studio for many years. My students learned so much more than theory and seemed to enjoy it, as did I.
My condolences to the family and thank you Rod.

Tribute from eileen roberts

Tribute from President, Victoria Choral Society

The 110 singers of the Victoria Choral Society took a moment in rehearsal on Tue., Feb 23 to consider the impact that dedicated music directors have made on our lives. Rodney was the director of the VCS for 17 years, and ensured that the choir continued to sing strongly!

Tribute from Chris Finch

Suzanne and I were saddened to hear of Rod's passing. He and Laura were strong advocates of children's music and the arts in Mission. However, his legacy continues with many of his students taking their music into their adult years.
