
REMEMBERING

Wayne Charles Fancher

September 4, 1955 - August 12, 2024

Wayne Charles Fancher, born on September 4, 1955, in Vancouver, BC, Canada, passed away peacefully on August 11, 2024, in Delta, BC. He was a beloved father to his two daughters, Ashley and Angie, who brought immense joy to his life.

Wayne was a proud member of Teamsters local 155, where he dedicated himself to his work and earned the respect of his peers. Known for his infectious sense of humor and outgoing personality, he had a knack for making those around him smile. He was a passionate sports fan, particularly devoted to the Vancouver Canucks, and loved sharing moments of laughter and excitement with family and friends.

An avid music lover, Wayne found joy in the sounds of CCR and The Beatles, often reminiscing about their timeless tunes. He cherished his walks at Redwood Park, a place where he could connect with nature and reflect on life.

Wayne’s spirit of giving extended beyond his family; he was actively involved in community initiatives, including a local toy drive that aimed to bring smiles to children during the holiday season.

He is survived by his daughters, sisters, and brothers, who will carry his memory in their hearts forever. Wayne’s humor, kindness, and love for life will be dearly missed by all who knew him.
