

REMEMBERING
Wynn William Walker

March 18, 1947 - February 12, 2015

Wynn passed away at age 67 after a courageous 14 month battle with pancreatic cancer. He passed away peacefully in his home on February 12, 2015 surrounded by his family. Born on March 18, 1947 in New Westminster, BC to Mildred and James Walker, Wynn was the eldest of 3 children. At the age of 6, Wynn began to cultivate his entrepreneurial spirit by selling berries at the side of the road. During his teen years he attended Killarney secondary school and worked at Douglas plywood mill on Annacis Island. In 1969 Wynn operated a salvage mill on Burn Road in Burnaby, B.C and then in 1974 bought a small sawmill in Ruskin B.C. Over the past 40 years, the business has grown to include 3 mills known today as The Waldun Group which is known worldwide as one of the most successful cedar shake & shingle manufacturers. Wynn realized his dream to see the business grow and spent much of his life dedicated to the business. Wynn spent over 50 years enjoying the beach at Boundary Bay and Point Roberts where he as a boy, spent every summer - and would then grow up to watch his boys enjoy the beach and explore the clay cliffs.

Wynn enjoyed taking "quick" day trips and had a love for classic cars. He loved to swim and putter in his vegetable garden. He will always be remembered for his spectacular light display every christmas. Wynn is survived by his mother Mildred Walker and his loving wife, Tracey Walker, brothers: Brett (Marcia) Walker and Tipp (Colleen) Walker. His legacy will live on through his children, Clayton (Anita) Walker, Curtis (Loni) Walker, Colin (Rebecca) Walker, step-daughter Jessica (Tyler) Wierzioch, his 11 grandchildren: Jacob, Paige, Anika, Nolan, Carter, Kash, Westin, Kate, Klade, Johanna, and Emma as well as his two nieces: Holly and Hillary Walker. The family would like to thank Dr. Shuel and the palliative care nursing team that provided exceptional support to allow Wynn to stay in his home. Donations can be made to the cancer society in Wynn's memory. In lieu of flowers, we ask that you take a moment to hug your child, grandchild or friend. Time waits for no one. Memorial service will be held Saturday February 28, 2015 at 1pm at Cedar Valley Mennonite Church, Mission B.C. Condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.bakerviewcrematorium.com

